

EMBEZZLED DUVET

KK46 is an interdisciplinary international artist collective formed in a semi-abandoned villa located at Käthe-Kollwitz -Str. 46. Formerly a production station of the piano manufacturer Blüthner.

The collective has been given free use of the space before it is renovated by the owners this autumn. making an in-between transition, opening the space to the public and engaging artistically with it before it transforms into its next function

Embezzled Duvet is the title of the exhibition which gathers in most parts, sight specific artworks by 10 artists:
